COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT & EDUCATION

Careers in the Performing Arts Classroom Guide

PlayhouseSquare and WVIZ/PBS ideastream® thank Mr. & Mrs. David T. Morgenthaler for their support of distance learning initiatives at the Idea Center® at PlayhouseSquare.
Welcome to Careers in the Performing Arts!

In partnership with WVIZ/PBS and WCPN 90.3 ideastream®, the Community Engagement & Education Department at PlayhouseSquare offers distance learning opportunities for high school students throughout the state of Ohio.

THE CAREERS IN THE PERFORMING ARTS SERIES
provides students the opportunity to interact with performers, choreographers, directors, lighting & set designers, stage managers, special effects technicians, and business/tour managers. Consisting of two parts – an interview and question and answer session – Careers in the Performing Arts enables students to learn directly from touring professionals who provide insight into not only performance, but behind the scenes aspects of careers in the performing arts.

Past discussions have featured cast and crew from the touring productions of Chicago, Wicked, The Color Purple and other Broadway shows. Schools connect through distance learning technology or join us live in the Idea Center® at PlayhouseSquare.

JUST A BIT OF OUR HISTORY:
The Idea Center® at Playhouse-Square is the result of a model partnership between WVIZ/PBS and 90.3 WCPN ideastream® and PlayhouseSquare. The headquarters for ideastream and the home for PlayhouseSquare's arts education programs, the Idea Center is much more than a building. It is a place for creativity and education. It is a place for the arts and technology to come together in new ways. It is a place for learning, rehearsing, performing and broadcasting.

PlayhouseSquare is an exciting and entertaining destination. As the country’s largest performing arts center outside of New York, the not-for-profit performing arts center utilizes the arts to engage individuals and attract more than one million guests per year to its 1,000+ annual events. These audiences act as the catalyst for economic growth and vitality within the region. Our sound fiscal stewardship, wise foresight, and lasting impact extend to four core concentrations: The Stage, Arts Education, Area Development and Not-for-Profit Performing Arts Center. PlayhouseSquare is a not-for-profit performing arts center that presents and produces a wide variety of quality performing arts, advances arts education and creates a neighborhood that is a superior destination for entertainment, business and housing, thereby strengthening the economic vitality of the region.

ideastream® is a multiple-media public service organization with a mission to strengthen our communities by providing distinctive, thought-provoking programs and services that enlighten, inspire, educate and entertain. The organization was formed by the merger of public broadcasting stations WVIZ/PBS and 90.3 WCPN in July of 2001. The organization operates public television and radio stations in Cleveland with an audience of some 2.8 million viewers and listeners, an Educational Service group serving schools with nearly one half million students and manages the Ohio Public Television and Radio Statehouse News Bureau and Ohio Government Telecommunications in Columbus.
Ohio Department of Education Content Standards

All learning activities have been aligned to both the Ohio Department of Education Academic Content Standards and the Arts and Communication Career Field Technical Content Standards for students who are pursuing careers in the performing arts.

The standards below are specific to the Careers in the Performing Arts panel interview.

Arts & Communications Career Field Technical Content Standards

Competency 1.1:
• Explore career pathways in arts and communication;
  ○ Explore specific arts and communication interests;
  ○ Identify education and licensing requirements needed for a career in arts and communications;
  ○ Identify the professional organizations and associations that directly affect a pathway of interest.

Competency 1.2:
• Compare and contrast the performance skills of individuals in the media, visual and performing arts;
  ○ Identify the role and function of individuals in each pathway (technical and non-technical);
  ○ Identify the areas of specialization and related occupations;
  ○ Explore the types of work techniques, processes and procedures a typical individual in each pathway might be called on to perform;
  ○ Describe the education, training and certification required to work in each of the pathways;
  ○ Compare and contrast career lifestyles associated with different levels of employment;
  ○ Describe the interrelationships between creators, performers and technicians;
  ○ Describe the interrelationships between media, visual design and imaging and performing arts.

Competency 1.3:
• Examine the history, trends and current issues related to visual design and imaging, media and performing arts;
  ○ Describe the impact of arts and communications on society;
  ○ Identify the current trends and issues impacting arts and communications;
  ○ Determine the issues' effects on the industry.
Pre-Interview Learning Activities

The pre-interview learning activities outlined below were designed by PlayhouseSquare’s Community Engagement & Education Department to stimulate students’ prior knowledge and build schema.

GENERATE GUEST QUESTIONS

Working in teams of 3 or 4, have students prepare a list of five (5) questions for the guests to address. Collect the questions and compile them into one master list. Have students create categories for the questions. Be sure they reflect on whether the questions are best addressed by these particular guests, or better addressed by someone else or via another resource. This reflective activity usually leads to eliminating several questions. Tell students to think of questions that will lead to unique responses from the speakers – responses they wouldn’t find in a text or via a Google search.

To assist you in creating your list, some general questions are provided below:

- What type of high school/college courses should I take to prepare for this career path?
- What extracurricular activities would benefit me if I want to pursue this career?
- Specifically, what other experiences prepared you for this job?
- What type of skills do I need to succeed in this career?
- What experience would make me a stronger candidate?
- What personality traits do you need to be successful?
- What do you like the most/the least about your job?
- What are the biggest challenges in your career?
- Can you describe a typical day on tour?
- How much time do you spend on tour?
- How long did it take you to become a “professional”?
- How many hours a day do you practice?
- Do I need to move to a major metropolitan city such as New York City or Los Angeles to pursue this career?
- Do I need to belong to a union to work in this field?
- What are typical union minimum salaries?
- How many hours do you work in a typical day?
- Are internships available?
- How do I search for positions in this field?
- How do I find out about auditions?
- Typically, what do I need to prepare for an audition?
- Do I need an agent?

During the Interview Activities

COLLECT QUOTES
During Careers in the Performing Arts, students may record guest quotes to be used in a double journal entry post-activity. The activity is designed to allow students to reflect, respond, interpret or analyze a quote from the interview. The teacher may also want to record quotes for accuracy.

CORNELL NOTE TAKING
Have students use the Cornell Note Taking system during the interview. This system allows students to condense and organize notes and is useful application for both high school and college students. There are six steps:
- Record
- Reduce (or question)
- Recite
- Reflect
- Review
- Recapitulate

If you are unfamiliar with this method, you may visit http://ccc.byu.edu/casc/note-taking – to familiarize yourself with the system. Upon completion of the interview, students review their notes and write a summary. The notes may be used in further class discussions or as a starting point for a report.

Post-Learning Activities

FURTHER CAREER RESEARCH
Using the K-W-L chart, complete the final section using information gathered during the interview and/or have students conduct further research to complete the last section of the chart. Students conduct further independent research and use this information to create a class presentation or produce an informational essay.

Ohio Academic Content Standards

English Language Arts (grades 11-12) - Writing Applications Standard D
• Produce information essays and reports that establish a clear and distinct perspective on the subject, include relevant perspectives, take into account the validity and reliability of sources and provide a clear sense of closure.

English Language Arts (grades 11-12) - Research Standard C
• Evaluate the usefulness and credibility of data and sources and synthesize information from multiple sources.

Arts & Communications Career Field Technical Content Standards

Competency 16.1:
• Deliver formal and informal presentations that demonstrate organization and delivery skill.

Competency 17.2:
• Describe the influences on music, dance and theatre.

SOCIAL ISSUES & BELIEFS REFLECTED IN THE ARTS
The arts are a vehicle to communicate more than emotion. Many performances challenge society’s norms, values, and belief systems. Have students identify a production that challenges society’s views or brought it into the forefront of society. Divide the class into two groups – from opposing positions – and have the groups defend their perspective using the stance taken by the particular production. If applicable, discuss the societal changes that occurred as a result.

Ohio Academic Content Standards

Drama/Theatre (9-12) - Valuing Drama/Theatre/Aesthetic Reflection Standards A and B
• Defend their responses to drama/theatre event based on their personal drama/theatre philosophies;
• Respect diverse options regarding drama/theatre preferences.
